Please note: Due to School Board regulations, to participate in Band Camp

ALL students MUST be registered band students as this is an after school activity.

Don't Forget the Dot Book!

ALL Marching Band students are required to have a small, spiral bound notebook and a pencil for Camp. Students will use this "Dot Book" to write marching routine notes. Notebook size should be approximately that of an index card. Students can put a string or shoelace through the spiral to hang it from their neck.

This Dot Book is VERY important and will be used at band camp daily!

7. Drum Corp International Championships Saturday – July 25, 2009 – Georgia Dome

Bus leaves Sprayberry at 2:00 p.m.

Each year Sprayberry Band offers to take marching band students and parents to the Drum Corps International (DCI) Show at the Georgia Dome. This is an exciting competition that allows marching band students to see marching at its finest.

Drum corps consists of bugle horns to include trumpets, mellophones, baritones, euphoniums and contras (like the sousaphone). The corps also consists of Color Guard, Drumline and Frontline Ensemble. This is a fantastic teaching tool that allows students to see what the best of the best marchers look and sound like. And we have a great time!

At DCI we'll also be able to enjoy members of our own Band of Gold perform as they are part of the World Champion Alliance Drum and Bugle Corps.

DCI Info

Saturday - July 25, 2009

To be held at the Georgia Dome

Buses will leave Sprayberry at 2:00 p.m.

Tickets: $40 (includes bus transportation and entrance ticket)
